

10-09-1984-p.1

- Penacet repair -- warning light that tells you that you are running out of gas; the people at Saul's were very nice. I was driven into town and the car was ready at noon.
- Deposited the complete ^{original} microfilm of opus 40 in the vault at First National Bank -- 6 rolls; Mrs. Ashby was the "attendant" and was very friendly. That makes me feel very comfortable.
- Received my Lakeland check for 9/28/84 -- $35.00 minus $2.35 FICA & 82¢ state tax = $31.79; very maddening, almost insulting. I'm sure the Cafeteria workers make more than the substitute teachers do. I must say that I am feeling very un-appreciated ^{at the moment} as a pedagogue -- only three substitute teaching calls since 9/28. I was expecting to be more in demand. Perhaps I should be more patient. Possibly one has to build up a reputation with the teachers so that they request you in particular in their absence. I am also feeling a bit paranoid about my day at F.C. about my day at Lakeland. My fear -- were Mrs. Doud & Mrs. Petruska pleased? Were the respective principals pleased? Patience, Robert, Patience.
- I am also plagued this day by financial matters -- DMEX -- $15.00; Micrographer -- $60.10 & $126.00; medical insurance -- $154.83; phone -- $18.94; car payments totalling $2,493.85; in addition, I will have considerable expense to incur to have myself winterized here at Eldale. Woe is me! Woe is me! I don't usually allow myself to be dragged down by such ridiculous matter as money but today money matters seem to be on my mind.
- at Saul's, ran into Earl Perry, who delivers, occasionally, meals on wheels to EAG, and who took her for a ride to see the autumn foliage about a week ago. Very friendly man & there him for thinking about EAG.
- The Library of Congress acknowledged receipt today of the Carbondale Calendar 1983. Hurrah! Hurrah.

John Klinkiewicz
reported in a letter to me of 10/4/84 (received today) that Northeastern Pennsylvania
is nicely
"preserved" in the Temple University
Library.
He says--
"I have enclosed the listing of N.E. PA. & took a look at it in the library and the set is handsomely bound in a single volume.
It is black
'leather' with gold lettering on the spine."

← the listing.
When next in Philadelphia I shall have a look at the bound volume.
